

Rochester Amanda Head F.S. 65 St. Eliz. Col. Angl. W.2. Farmer

Her farm 1942.

In the Census she figures in Sch.3 - under 1 acre.
Stock: 3 cattle /?/, 1 goat, 1 hen.
Garden produce: £9.
1 coconut - 20 nuts. 6 mangoes - 70 dozens.

Rochester Amanda
- her family.

Amanda Rochester - popularly known as Pigeon Rochester was "Mr. Laban Rochester bastard sister".

Her mother was Liza Salmon. She had two daughters by Thomas Rochester, Laban's and William's father; Dorry Rochester and Pigeon Rochester.

The land on which Amanda Rochester used to live in Ridge was her mother's land. Her mother - Liza Salmon got it probably from her parents. "I born and saw Liza Salmon living on that land."

Amanda Rochester died about 5 years ago. Her land and house passed to her brother Stanford Yaws /or Yoze or Youth/. Stanford ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ rented this place to Agnes Dyer "to live and care the little home".

For further particulars see Fa. Rec. 122 /Hubert Dyer and his family/.